THE CANADIAN FILMMAKERS FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES CALL FOR ENTRIES FOR 2007

– Festival Dates March 22nd to 25th, 2007 –

TORONTO, November 1, 2006 – The Canadian Filmmakers Festival, a forum dedicated solely to the advancement of Canadian film, is pleased to announce that the fourth annual Festival is now considering submissions for the 2007 event. The Festival, presented by Schweppes, will be held in downtown Toronto from March 22nd to 25th, 2007 and will showcase films, workshops, panel discussions and various other sessions and events.

Filmmakers from across the country are invited to submit their films for consideration by the Festival jury. Deadline for submissions is January 12th, 2007.

Eligibility

An independent selection committee is appointed by the Festival to view all submissions, for both pre-selection and final selection. Eligibility guidelines include the following:

- Films must be Canadian productions
- Films completed within the last two years are preferred
- Feature films over 50 minutes in length and shorts under 50 minutes in length
- All genres are accepted

Submission forms and criteria guidelines are available on the new Canadian Filmmakers Festival web site at: www.canfilmfest.ca.

About The Canadian Filmmakers Festival

The Canadian Filmmakers Festival is a not-for-profit organization devoted solely to the celebration, promotion and advancement of Canadian filmmaking talent. By exclusively featuring Canadian films, its goal is to provide filmmakers with a valuable showcase and networking opportunities and to offer the public homegrown productions to view and enjoy. Held annually in downtown Toronto theatre locations, the Festival presents short and feature films and also includes opening and closing galas, parties, panels and other meet-and-greet sessions.
